

Information for Parents & Guardians: Classes to resume at all CCRSB schools December 6th

December 5, 2016

Dear parents, guardians and students:

In accordance with a direction from the Minister of Education and Early Childhood Development classes at all schools in the Chignecto-Central Regional School Board will resume tomorrow, Tuesday, December 6th.

We have faith in our teachers and our school administrators. We know that they take student safety very seriously.

Though classes will resume tomorrow, it is important to note that the strike action by members of the NSTU will continue. Specifics about what this ongoing strike action means can be found in our communication of November 30th.

Please continue to check the CCRSB website <http://www.ccrsb.ca/nstu-labour-action-information> for updates, as well as our social media channels.
